“Leslie Schweitzer and her team lead this event, with honored guests in attendance including, the President of the University David Rubenstein, Roya Rahmani, Ambassador of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan to the United States, General (Ret.) David Petraeus, General (Ret.) John “Mick” Nicholson, David Sedney, and Dr. Kenneth Holland.”

The Zamani Foundation contributed at the Ambassador Level for the sponsorship of the Annual Awards Dinner and supported the silent and live auctions for student sponsorships. Mustafa Zamani’s donated a full scholarship for a student to attend the American University of Afghanistan.

“We are passionate about supporting Afghan youth, and we believe investing in education is the best way to do so,” said Mustafa Zamani, Founder of the Zamani Foundation.

The Friends of the American University of Afghanistan is dedicated to supporting higher education in Afghanistan through entities such as American University of Afghanistan and the Zamani Foundation proudly partners with them by providing financial aid for future students.
